EDITORIAL: THE MISSION PLAN

Prior to the reopening of schools, most parents/guardians set out on the task of getting children equipped and ready for the new school year. This act of getting the children ready continues throughout the term—e.g. waking them up, preparing meals, assisting with homework, scrutinizing reports, etc. These actions by parents/guardians mirror what is expected of us as Christians as we embark on effecting God’s Mission Plan.

First, the act by parents suggests that they have their children’s development at heart. Mission—God’s Mission—must be at the heart of every Christian. We must be concerned about the salvation status of our families and friends and so we must set out on the task of finding the time in our everyday activities, to share the gospel of Christ with them as well as demonstrate the love of Christ in our actions toward them. Second, the preparation action by parents is one that brings hope to their children. No matter how poorly a child does in school, seeing his/her parents taking steps to prepare him/her for school gives some element of hope to the child. Similarly, our work of doing God’s mission is a means of bringing hope to those who feel condemned and hopeless. The hope of many, lies in our hands and so as Christians we must engage in building hope so others can live with a sense of peace—we must share God’s words of hope to those who need it—the sick, depressed, those suffering loss and other kinds of woes. Finally, each year as parents prepare and equip their children for school, the school’s purposes and values remain the same though the preparation tasks differ as the child moves to higher grades. God’s Mission plan has not changed in purpose or in value but our approach to reaching souls for Christ may change—using e-mails, facebook and twitter, sending text messages, inviting persons for a walk on the beach—are just some of the approaches that can be utilized.

As we reflect on the last church year we will definitely find deficits in the way we effected God’s mission but let us use the opportunity to make God’s Mission Plan the core of our plans for the new year so that indeed “God can reconcile the world to Himself” - for this is the ultimate mission plan.

Mission Impossible? The army and their leader were paralysed with fear as they saw their enemy approaching from the far end of the field. The enemy was huge and so the leader thought “oh what a daunting challenge this is going to be - we are already defeated.” Then he heard the voice of the enemy shouting “Why do you come out and line up for battle? Choose a man and have him come down to me!” The leader looked across at his men whom he had trained for battle—they stood shaking in their boots. This was so senseless. The leader thought of surrendering. That’s it—it’s easier to surrender than to enter into battle and sustain bruises from the enemy—perhaps even death. Suddenly, it seemed from nowhere, the little boy whom this great leader had overlooked appeared and said to

JAMAICA BAPTIST UNION MISSION AGENCY (JBUMA)

Overview of Mission 2020

Mission 2020 is a programme of evangelism and church growth embarked on by the Jamaica Baptist Union from 2010 to 2020. The aim of the programme is to reach 40,000 new persons, bring them into a saving relationship with Jesus Christ and disciple them to serve Christ in the world through the membership in a Jamaica Baptist Union-affiliated local church. The programme is designed to cater for a maturing spirituality among members and church communities and lead individual Christians to practice lifestyle evangelism for ten (10) years. The programme will also give special attention to mission causes with the aim of bringing them up to church status. An adventurous part of this programme is the planting of new churches. The programme will seek to implement the relevant areas of the existing Jamaica Baptist Union Mission Plan. At every step of the programme the denomination's membership will be encouraged to practice the discipline of prayer and to deepen its awareness and consciousness of the Holy Spirit.

Objectives:

1. To mobilize the local congregation to approach ministry with a focus on evangelism.
2. To design and implement strategies with the view to create numerical church growth by carrying out the mandate of the great commission.
3. To educate and create exposure for members in personal Evangelism.
4. To prepare a number of persons who to be trainers within the local congregation.
5. To plan and implement a series of local church, circuit and association opportunities for: members' enrichment, training in personal evangelism, opportunities for the presentation of the gospel using both traditional and emerging methods.

Thought: The more we feed on God's Word, the more able we are to do God's work.

the men who stood by him, "What shall be done for the man who kills this enemy, and takes away the shame and disgrace from our people? As he approached the enemy, the enemy also came forward with his shield bearer in front of him. When the enemy saw that he was only a child, he began laughing but then got angry and said "Am I a dog, that you come at me with sticks and stones?" And the enemy said "Come here, I'll give your flesh to the birds and the wild animals!" But the boy said to his enemy "You come against me with sword and spear and javelin, but I come against you in the name of the LORD Almighty, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. This day the LORD will deliver you into my hands, and I'll strike you down and cut off your head. This very day I will give the carcasses of the Philistine army to the birds and the wild animals, and the whole world will know that there is a God in Israel. All those gathered here will know that it is not by sword or spear that the LORD saves; for the battle is the LORD's, and he will give all of you into our hands." And so it was—the Mission was accomplished! (Adapted from 1 Samuel 17 - the story of David and Goliath).

As we embark on the Mission field for Christ, we often encounter obstacles (Goliaths) that blind our eyes and cause us to be fearful and afraid of completing God's mission plan. Like David, let us see our Goliaths as opportunities for exercising our faith, declaring the power and awesomeness of God and advancing the mission of Christ Jesus our Lord and Saviour. Our cry then will not be mission impossible but mission accomplished!
