

EMMANUEL BAPTIST CHURCH, PORT MARIA, ST. MARY

E-EMMANUEL

VOLUME 9, ISSUE 19, NO. 125

October 2013

EDITORIAL:

Every now and again, people pause to reflect on their past activities with a view of seeing if they were faithful in their stewardship, and then use those moments to determine their future undertakings. As a church we have come to the end of another church year, and on reflection we can say God has been very good to us, especially since much of it involved our celebratory activities of 185 years of Christian witness. There is so much to be thankful for. One such achievement is the fellowship we share as brothers and sisters in Christ. This fellowship has kept this church going regardless of the challenges we face.

I would like to encourage us that as we seek to chart the future together in this new church year, that we do not waste time basking in the glory of our achievements but that we pledge to and work towards the improvement of what we have. God has provided more opportunities for us to carry out ministry and we should seek to be faithful to these.

Thanks to everyone for your continued support to the ministries of the church and may God continue to bless you.

*Rev. Oral Campbell
Pastor*

Be in prayer for the officers and deacons as they seek to support the pastor in leading and guiding the wider membership as directed by God, in accomplishing His Mission. In addition, pray that they will truly serve as Christ served and be committed to living lives that reflect Christ.

Members are encouraged to support the planned programmes aimed at edifying and strengthening faith in God; as well as participate in those activities that engage us in proclaiming the gospel of Christ.

As we all combine our efforts, may we not esteem any above the other; but remind each other that we are all one in Christ Jesus. Let us this year, seek to work as one united body, praying always for each other and showing love to one another, for Christ's name.

Cradle Roll Ministry

On August 24, 2013, the Cradle Roll Ministry hosted its first quarterly "birthday bash" for the period June-August. Children and parents enjoyed the get together and treat and the birthday babies received special gifts. Here are the children who celebrated their birthdays during the period. Please continue to be in prayer for them that indeed, they will grow in a wholesome environment where they experience God's love and care. Also, be in prayers for the parents and caregivers of these children.
